Interview Summary
Two youth were interviewed at the unannounced inspection. The first youth interviewed was 13 and the second youth interviewed was 14 years old. The following information was obtained from the youth interviews: • Both youths stated that they felt safe in the program. • Both youths stated that they felt in the program and supported by staff. • Both youths confirmed that they receive enough food to eat. • Both youths stated that they get to make phone calls often. • Both youths stated that they get to go on outings such as the park, fair or other events. • One youth stated that they would not change anything about the program. The other youth interviewed stated that the only thing they would change would be to have “personal animals” for all youth.

Observations
Staff and youth were observed at the programs during the inspection. The youth that were at the programs appeared to be at ease, energetic and comfortable in the environment. All areas of the programs (inside and outside) where youth had access were observed to be well kept, clean and in good repair (see minimal repairs needed above in the report). The program has added room-clean charts as well.
