Interview Summary
Two youth, ages 12 and 15, were individually interviewed and have been in the program 1 year and 6 months respectively. Both youth provided examples of how the agency is helping them. They report feeling safe, that peer relationships are average, staff are trusting, they have regular unrestricted contact with family and people on their approved contact list, and the food is good and plentiful. They described outings and onsite activities, but said the agency could improve on providing more variety of activities to mix it up. The program does well at figuring out solutions and providing good food.

Observations
The environment was welcoming, clean, in good condition, and decorated for the season. An adequate food supply was observed in the pantry, freezers, and refrigerators. The agency converted a room within an outbuilding for multiuse purposes as a visitation room and to house music equipment. The recreation building, termed as the “barn”, was observed to be spacious and clean, with a pool table and an open loft area with three TV and gaming set-ups with seating for each. There is a garage heater. However, it does not fully heat the entire space. The agency is utilizing some grant money to professionally insulate the building, and this work is scheduled for January 2023. Fully insulating the area will make it easier to heat. Big fans will also be purchased for cooling in the summer/warmer months.
