DPSQA - Incident & Accident - OLTC

Report Description: [redacted] he 4 above resident eloped from the Little Creek facility by pushing a window out and running at 044am. While on the run, a white male saw them running and offered them a ride to their destination (Little Rock). The white male needed gas and pulled over to the local gas station (VP Fuels), while at the gas station. The Little creek staff members caught up with them at the gas station and the boys tried to run again. Each staff member caught 3 of the boys, and called the local police department. The police escorted [redacted] back to the facility at 0630am. [redacted] return to Little Creek at 1035 am, by the local police as he was able to get away from the staff at the gas station.

This ELEMENT is not met as evidenced by: Based on file review and interview, the facility failed to ensure documentation of physical restraint for two (Client #3 and Client #4) of five clients. The findings include: A review of Client #3's and Client #4's file on 08/11/2025 did not reveal a Restraint Packet had been completed for the physical restraint conducted during the elopement on 08/08/2025. On 08/11/2025 at 12:21 PM, during an interview Client #3 stated that he had been caught and placed in a physical restraint by BHA #1 at the gas station where they were found after elopement. On 08/12/2025 at 11:05 AM, during an interview BHA #1 stated upon finding the clients who had eloped to a gas station he was able to catch Client #3 and placed him in a regular standing hold until the local police department arrived and took custody of Client #3. On 08/11/2025 at 11:51 AM, during an interview Client #4 stated that he hurt his ankle when he hit the ground after jumping out of the window so when staff arrived at the gas station he started to	-501
