Primary Narrative By Wayne Camacho, 05/13/25 16:32

Battery 3rd

On 05/13/2025 at or around 1516 hours, I, Deputy W. Camacho, was dispatched to 20400 Colonel Glenn Road. Youth Home in reference to a Disturbance with a Juvenile.

Upon arrival, I made contact with Shataria Davis, a Qualified Behavior Health Provider (QBHP). She stated she was assaulted by a

She said struck her with a Stanley cup several times, once in the head. She was also punched several times on her arms, kicked on her right leg, and bit on her left hand.

A Kami Miller, also a QBHP, said she witnessed the assault.

I approached and was able to get side of the story. said was upset because could not understand how to score the task was asked to complete for Davis, which led to behavior.

I did not see any visible bruises on Davis's arms or a bite mark on her left hand.

Davis declined an ambulance but said she would drive herself to a hospital.

Davis was given this report number.
