Interviews:
Opening interview was held with the Program Director, Jennifer Horst. An update regarding the program staffing and status on the program were discussed. The Agency has built a lot of connections with programs around the Grants Pass area that have donated things for youth in the program at Christmas time. Youth are receiving gifts from Salvation Army, such as new jackets, etc.. The Director mentioned it is always challenging hiring new people.
Two youths from the program were interviewed. Both youths are 15 years of age. Both youths have been at the program for 3.5 to 4 months. When asked what they appreciated most about living in the program, the youth stated: Outings, such as going to the park, YMCA, drives with staff, swimming, and playing basketball. One youth stated that he enjoys the anger management groups as it helps him communicate better with staff when he gets frustrated. Both youths stated that they get along well with staff in general. Both youths feel like they can communicate with staff when needed. Both youths like the food that the program serves. Both youths shared that they get plenty of phone calls to family. Both youths expressed that they feel safe in the program.

Observations:
Staff and youth were observed at the program during the inspection. The youth that were at the program appeared to be at ease and comfortable in the environments. All areas of the program (inside and outside) where youth had access were observed to be well kept, clean and mostly in good repair. One of the agency vehicles that the youth ride in was observed and met the requirements per Licensing Rules. The kitchen was observed to be well maintained and had an adequate amount of food. Medication was observed to be in locked medication carts in locked rooms which were inaccessible to the youth.

Program Strengths identified by Turning Point :
1) Addition of a large fenced-in garden area with raised beds and a greenhouse. This has been incorporated into school programming, allowing youth to help grow food and have a peaceful green space.
2) Development of community partnerships that provide consistent outings for youth in the program for recreation & vocational opportunities (YMCA, Vocational Tech program, Spartan Boxing, Oregon Futbol Academy [OFA].)
3) Contracted services with two mental health private practices, which provides on-site mental health services with the ability for the Qualified Mental Health Professional (QMHP) to develop relationships with youth in the program setting and then also allow for additional counseling services off-site as needed. Adding two providers allows for greater access to mental health services when needed and creating a back-up provider in times of absences.
4) Implementation of Best Notes system for electronic record keeping has created simplified ways to chart and track BRS services, run reports and provide up-to-date information for multipurpose needs related to Performance and Quality Improvements.
5) Josephine County built and implemented a new website. This included, for the first time, an area dedicated to Turning Point Youth Residential under the Juvenile Justice webpages.

Program Challenges identified by Turning Point:

1) Physical location of program is across the street from the Gospel Rescue Mission and next to the railroad tracks and a small park, often with a transient population.

2) Limited outdoor area on-site for recreation purposes for youth to utilize.

3) The inability to hire and maintain staffing for the program. (Lack of applications for open positions and lack of retention of hired employees.) This also contributes to the constant need to provide training and re-training, as we start from scratch each time.

Changes that have occurred in the last 2 years as identified by Turning Point:

As with our last audit, we have had a lot of staffing changes over the last two years. This creates difficulty in constantly needing to train new people, creating shifts with no extensive experience, and requiring a lot of assistance from management and on-call managers regularly. In the last 2 years, we have hired 15 new employees.

Our Social Services Facilitator has been on extended medical leave this year. A qualified Juvenile Probation Officer has taken on this role in the interim until a long-term decision is made. We are meeting all BRS requirements, and the interim is doing well, but this obviously has been a difficult situation.

In addition to the many new or changing direct care staff (Group Life Counselors), we have also had new employees take over other roles in the last two years. This includes additions of a new weekend supervisor (Juvenile Justice Supervisor), Food Service Specialist, Education Coordinator, and the interim Social Services Facilitator.

Positive work with continued community partners such as 715 Youth Ministries, which provides opportunities for interested youth to engage in a weekly Vo-Tech program (auto repair, welding, construction, etc.), as well as other 715 led outings (mountain bike riding). Additionally, a newer partner, Spartan Boxing, now provides circuit training and exercise for youth in our program on a regular basis.

We applied for and were awarded approx. $10,000 from an OYA Grant to purchase additional behavioral health furniture for our dayroom area and replenish curriculum workbooks for group and individual skill building purposes.

We also received grant funding from DHS for Workforce Stability purposes. We were able to use the $148,662 towards longevity bonuses (at 6 months and 2-year markers), overtime bonuses, training costs, employee sweatshirts, Employee of the Month awards and other ways to provide staff recognition and encourage employee satisfaction.
