Interview Summary
Holly Ivey, ODHS Licensing Coordinator, interviewed the only youth that was at the program the day of the inspection. The youth stated that things were going well for her at the program. She appreciated the staff being helpful to her. She enjoyed playing soccer, puzzles, coloring, board and card games. While at the program she has gone to the beach, Wildlife Safari, the aquarium, and an aviation museum. She stated she could have private phone calls during free time with people approved by her guardian. She stated the food was good and that she had enough to eat to include daily snacks. She stated hygiene products were provided by the program. She stated she felt respected by staff and always felt safe at the program.

Observations
At the Unannounced Inspection, the Program Director, Timothy Davis, assisted with a walk through with Holly Ivey, ODHS Licensing Coordinator. All areas of the programs (inside and outside) where youth had access were observed to be well kept, clean and in good repair. The agency vehicle that the youth ride in was observed and met the requirements per Licensing Rules. Both kitchen's (in the Residential Program, and the Lane County Detention Center- where food is prepared and brought to the youth) were observed to be clean and had food in the refrigerators and pantries. Medication was observed to locked medication and inaccessible to youth. One youth was observed to be at the program during the walk-through inspection. The youth appeared to be comfortable and at ease in the program.

Corrective Actions and Timeframes:
N/A there were no compliance issues or concerns found while conducting the Unannounced Inspection. There is nothing the agency needs to send to ODHS Licensing regarding the inspection.
