Interview Summary
Youth were in school during the Unannounced Inspection and unavailable to be interviewed. A phone call occurred with Holly Ivey, ODHS Licensing Coordinator, and two youth on May 15, 2023. The two private interviews of youth consisted of the following information obtained: • Both youth stated things were going well for them while residing at the program, and one youth stated they liked it there. • When asked what they appreciated most about the program the youth stated: "I like the structure, I have the same schedule every day, and I know what's coming." "Outings they take us on. " • Fun activities reported by the youth: going to a church gym, playing basketball in the backyard, playing sports. • Both youth mentioned that they receive three meals a day, and snacks are provided to them. • The youth all stated they can call people on their approved contact list and talk privately daily twice a day. • Both youth reported that the program provides hygiene products. • Both youth reported that they could talk to staff if they had a concern or a need, and that they felt respected by staff. • When asked what changes they would make to the program the youth stated: "Probably better tasting food and quality because its detention food" • Both youth reported feeling safe at the program. • There were no concerns stated to the Licensing Coordinator in the interviews conducted.

Observations
At the Unannounced Inspection, the Program Director, Jose Miranda, and Assistant Program Director, Cynthia Ramos-Navarro, assisted with a walk through with Holly Ivey, ODHS Licensing Coordinator. All areas of the programs (inside and outside) where youth had access were observed to be well kept, clean and in good repair. The agency vehicles that the youth ride in were observed and met the requirements per Licensing Rules. Both kitchen's (in the Residential Program, and the Marion County Detention Center- where food is prepared and brought to the youth) were observed to be clean and have food in the refrigerator and pantries. Medication was observed to be in a locked medication cart which was inaccessible to youth. Youth were in school during the walk-through inspection and were not observed at the program.

Corrective Actions and Timeframes:

N/A there were no compliance issues or concerns found while conducting the Unannounced Inspection. There is nothing the agency needs to send to ODHS Licensing regarding this inspection.
