Interview Summary
Alicia Johnson, Program Director, was informally interviewed by the Licensing Coordinator at the review as she assisted with the walk through of the program. Two youth were privately interviewed by the Licensing Coordinator at the review. The youth interviews consisted of the following information obtained: • When asked how things were going at the program the youth stated: “It’s alright”, “It’s going pretty good.” • When asked what they appreciated most about the program, the following was stated by the youth: “The support, and care.” “I really like the staff, most of them are really friendly. They are here to take care of us, they are really casual.” • When asked what they enjoy doing for fun at the program, the following was stated by the youth: “Arts and crafts.” “Free time, movie night, and going out on outings on Saturday.” • Both youth confirmed that they have daily contact with their approved contacts outside of the program and that their phone calls are private. • Both youth stated that they receive three meals a day and are provided three snacks a day. The youth stated: “The food is delicious; we have a personal chef.” “It’s ok, the food is not the type of cultural food I am used to.” • Both youth stated they felt respected by staff and could ask staff if they had a need for something. • When asked if the program provides hygiene products if needed the youth stated, “Yes, I brought mine from home.” “You can ask staff if you need some, I brought mine from home.” • When the youth were asked what they would change about the program, the following was stated by the youth: “The way they have the program set up is pretty good, I wouldn’t change anything.” “More opportunities to connect with family. More efficient cleaning of the bathroom downstairs, there was throw up on the toilet one day and I asked two different staff to clean it up and they did not.” (Follow Up: After the youth interviews, Holly Ivey, Licensing Coordinator spoke with Alicia Johnson, Program Director about the youths stated concern. Alicia, stated, she was unaware of the situation but would follow up with staff about the concern. Holly Ivey, Licensing Coordinator, asked that if this happens in the future that staff address this in a timely manner. Holly Ivey, Licensing Coordinator observed all bathrooms, and they were all clean the day of the unannounced.) The same youth also stated, “Better quality food, a client’s chicken was unforkable.” (unable to stab the meat), “This has happened a few times.” (Follow Up: After the youth interviews, Holly Ivey, Licensing Coordinator spoke with Alicia Johnson about the youths stated concern. Alicia stated, she was unaware of the situation but would follow up with staff about the concern and send Holly Ivey a follow up email.) The same youth also stated, “There was a girl in the program who had had some expired tasting cheese, she told staff, and they got her some new cheese.” (Follow Up: Holly Ivey, Licensing Coordinator, notified Alicia Johnson about this and asked that she follow up about the situation) • Both youth reported feeling safe at the program. One youth stated, “Yes,I feel safe, I feel uncomfortable with a youth at the table. I have told staff about it, but because of other residents’ needs, staff need to sit next to them, and I need to sit by the resident.” (Follow Up: After the youth interviews, Holly Ivey, Licensing Coordinator spoke with Alicia Johnson about the youths stated concern. Alicia stated she would follow up with staff about the concern and send Holly Ivey a follow up email.)

Observations
A walk through of the site was conducted by the Licensing Coordinator. The youth at the programs were observed to be at ease and comfortable in the environment. All areas of the program (inside and outside) where youth had access were observed to be well kept, clean and in good repair. The program has a commercial cleaning company that cleans the facility three times a week. The cleaning company also washes and changes the youth's linens and towels. Food was observed to be in the refrigerator and in the pantry. The program has a chef who is responsible for the meals, which are prepared fresh onsite. The program has a dietitian that ensures the residents receive proper nutrition. Medication was observed to be locked up and inaccessible to the youth.
