Report Description: Incident Report for [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Incident Report date/time:

05/23/25 8:35am Location of Incident: [REDACTED] Incident Description: Threat to

Safety, Other-Client left unattended [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Events Leading: Clients were lining up to walk to school. Client was in her bedroom asleep. Staff and peers left to go to school. School staff did a head count of their first period and inquired about the whereabouts of the client. The school team immediately checked other classrooms and the nursing station. Another team member dialed the house in attempts to locate client.

However, at this time a team member saw client approaching the front door of the school with two staff. Client entered the school, appearing disheveled. Staff walked client to their office and debriefed with client, allowing her to decompress. Client was apologetic to which staff informed client she does not need to apologize. Time was spent validating client's feelings. She was then taken to the decompression zone to allow more time for self regulation before going to class. When house staff returned to the house, client was sitting in the milieu alone, observed rocking in the floor. Staff asked client if she was okay and offered a cool rag and water. Client was left unattended in the house for approximately 5 minutes. Nursing Assessment date/time: 05/23/25 10:05am: Patient presents in Siebert school d-zone with two staff present. Patient reports she was left in the [REDACTED] alone with staff not present for 5 minutes. Patient denies having physical concerns but is reporting anxious feelings. Patient request [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Patient anxious and cooperative at this time. Will provide support as needed.

Guardian was contacted on 05/23/25 at 10:54am.

Interim Action Narrative: Resident was assessed and debriefed with staff.

██████████ Narrative:

Licensing Narrative: Licensing reviewed provider reported incident for licensing concerns. Licensing inquired if incident was ██████████, the procedure for escorting residents from the house, and if staff members involved will receive training and/or warning. Per facility, staff are supposed to count the residents before leaving the house to go anywhere on campus. Counts are done throughout the day from class to class and from one building to the next for lunch etc to make sure staff keep all residents under supervision. The staff involved will be retrained and were wrote up. 5/27/2025, licensing inquired if resident was on any precautions when left unsupervised. Facility reported that resident was on activity limit. Resident was limited from exercises and recreation. Facility will be cited for 907.2. Licensing requested training documentation. Facility reported training documentation will be provided. 5/30/2025, facility provided training documentation for the staff members involvded in this provider reported incident.
