Narrative - Sisson, Andrew - 8/17/2025 1:57:18 PM (Initial)

On 08/16/2025, in the approximate time of 14:03, Officer Andrew Sisson was dispatched to a "Millcreek of Arkansas" facility located at 1828 Industrial Drive. Central Dispatch advised Officer Sisson that they had received multiple 911 calls stating several physical altercations were taking place at the location, and staff were unable to contain or separate the involved parties. While Officer Sisson was enroute, Central Dispatch broadcasted that they were on 911 with a Millcreek staff member stating they were needing "any available units" to respond. Following this update, Lieutenant Kevin Archer and Sergeant Willie Jenkins were promptly attached to the call for service and began response. Officer Sisson, Lieutenant Archer, and Sergeant Willie Jenkins all arrived at the location simultaneously. Upon their arrival, several different staff members with the Millcreek facility began pointing in various different and inconsistent locations of the property in attempts to show where the fights were or had taken place. No active physical altercations were visible. While units were standing by at the location, an unidentified black male, wearing a blue shirt and blue shorts began shouting at the Officer's on-scene. This unidentified male made comments such as "If y'all take them badges off, I'll whoop y'all's ass." and "I don't care about the police, fuck 12". These were repeated several times in a verbally berating manner. Upon a Millcreek staff member approaching this male, he returned to the Millcreek building without further unruly conduct. After establishing that everything at the location was back under control by Millcreek staff, and no involved parties stepping forward wishing to speak to Officer's, units on-scene cleared from the call for service without incident.
