Nursing Assessment date/time: 02/18/25 9:15pm: The nurse received orders for the client to be placed at the front of the house due to unsafe behaviors, including threats from peers attempting to attack her in response to her aggression toward staff. The client was informed of this decision, at which point she became aggressive with staff. During this escalation, the client pushed a staff member in frustration. As staff attempted to remove the client's mattress from her room, she began pulling and tugging at the bed to prevent its relocation. Due to continued aggression and safety concerns, the client was placed in a personal restraint. Upon release from the restraint, the client attempted to attack staff, ran into unauthorized areas, and attempted to use the phone inappropriately. The client was subsequently placed in another personal restraint to ensure safety. Following this incident, the on-call MD was notified of the client's unsafe and disruptive behaviors, and the following orders were approved: personal restraint, freeze PA, and chemical restraint. The nurse completed a face-to-face assessment at 9:15 PM, during which the client denied any physical injuries or concerns. The client was observed lying on a mattress at the front of the house and requested earplugs, which were provided. The on-call UM was notified at 9:28 PM, and the on-call therapist was informed at 9:34 PM. Guardian was notified on 02/18/25 at 9:05pm. [REDACTED] on 02/19/25 at 12:33pm for an [REDACTED].
