Narrative:

5/28/24-Facility visited in response to complaint that staff [REDACTED] was rough with [REDACTED] during a restraint about a year ago, and [REDACTED] was physically rough with client [REDACTED] during a restraint on 4/24/24. Also addressed, was portion of complaint that client [REDACTED] had tested positive for Chlamydia while at Delta.

Client [REDACTED] was admitted to Delta on 1/11/24. She tested positive for Chlamydia on 5/22/24 during a Dr.'s appointment for an unrelated medical visit. Client [REDACTED] was interviewed today. She stated that she had not been sexually active since admission to Delta. [REDACTED] stated that the last time she was sexually active was "October" before coming to Delta. [REDACTED] has been on two passes from facility which involved direct supervision by DHS Caseworker at all times.

No nursing note or restraint incident report could be found for 4/24/24. Most recent restraint before that was 4/12/24. That nursing note was reviewed which stated there were no injuries voiced or noted on assessment. There is no video of this incident for review.

Client [REDACTED] interviewed and reported Delta staff to be "some ok". When asked about any staff being physically rough [REDACTED] reported that "[REDACTED] (clarified to be [REDACTED] "twisted my arm during a restraint". When asked about any other staff [REDACTED] reported that [REDACTED] (clarified to be [REDACTED] called her "dot to dot". When asked to describe what that meant [REDACTED] reported that she was called that due to acne. Client [REDACTED] was given additional time to voice any additional issues or concerns she had with staff which she declined.

Staff [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] will remain on administrative leave pending results of this investigation. As a precautionary measure, all staff will be given in-training on professionalism with clients.

Licensing is not prepared to make a finding at this time.
