[REDACTED] Incident report date/time: 05/29/25

5:25pm Location of Incident: Outdoors Incident Description: Aggressive to Peers,

Aggressive to Adults, Threat to Safety Staff Involved: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Events Leading: After dinner 4 staff and 5 clients were outside hanging out and playing basketball. During this time a male peer was on the other end of the court (alone) separated from the other boys for other reasons , [REDACTED] became irritable because he refused to engage with her due to rules and them being on a peer limit. As the boys were lining up [REDACTED] purposely kicked the ball towards them to get closer to the boys. Once [REDACTED] kicked the ball towards the boys she was then redirected because she walked over and flipped a boy off. She yelled at staff and staff instructed her to go inside, she refused "I'm not going in the fucking house NO! " Staff then tried processing with her to get an understanding and during this time she ran towards a female peer she had been accusing of flirting with he male peer mentioned above and tried to attack her. 5:25pm-Personal Restraint: Staff attempted to verbally intervene but [REDACTED] continued to try and attack her peer. She was then placed in an escort by two staff who continued to offer the client verbal redirection, refusing to calm down she was escorted to [REDACTED] where she fought and kicked staff the entire time. Once in the house, the client continued to yell homicidal threats towards her peer, she was still attempting to kick at staff's legs. Staff continued to offer verbal support but the client remained escalated and tearful. 5:37pm-Personal Restraint End: After 12 long minutes of trying to deescalate, she finally reached tension reduction and was able to sit down with staff and then she was able to contract to safety and be released. Patient Debriefing date/time: 05/29/25 5:38pm: Client was hyper focused on the male client who did not offer her the attention she was craving, she was still making homicidal threats towards her female peer that she attempted to attack. She remained very irrational and could not see her responsibility in the situation. As this is the 5th client she has attacked in 4 weeks, an [REDACTED] bed has been found and the client will be [REDACTED]. Nursing Assessment date/time: 05/29/25 5:45pm: [REDACTED] was sitting on couch in dayroom with a staff member sitting on either side of her. She was angry, cursing and yelling. She was yelling homicidal threats aimed at a peer, who was not in the room. She attempted to attack this peer outside. She was yelling, "I'm going to fucking snap her neck. When she walks through this door, I'm going to kill her." [REDACTED] refused any interventions to help her calm and refused assessment at this time. No physical distress noted or voiced.
