Licensing Specialist reviewed camera footage which began at 6:40 p.m. and ended at 6:54 p.m. on Residence Hall East 1. Licensing observed a ratio of 4:1.

Licensing observed the resident leave the room. Per facility staff it was the group room on Residence Hall East 1. Licensing observed the resident being redirected several times by staff who were walking with him to calm him down.

It appeared that the resident was targeting a male staff member as staff and the resident walked the hall. The resident was observed what appeared to swing his arms, hitting staff, and attempting to kick the male staff between his legs. The male staff member was able to prevent the resident from kicking him by putting his arms out in front of his private area.

The staff members were observed assisting the male staff member during this time during this time to calm the resident down after several redirections. Eventually, the resident did calm down.

The facility provided Licensing with a nursing note for this complaint. Licensing reviewed the nurse's note.
