Licensing received a complaint on 04/28/2025 for ELS Case #029333.

Licensing Specialist reviewed camera footage for this complaint with Ms. Sherika Williams, Ms. Fatima Stepps, and Mr. Justin Smith.

Licensing Specialist reviewed camera footage that began at 7:49 a.m. on Residence Hall East 1. Licensing observed a ratio of 2:1.

Camera footage had sound, and Licensing was able to hear two staff members talking. Licensing could hear the staff 1 talking to the resident in the room. Licensing could hear staff 1 and the resident talking to each other. Licensing could hear staff 1 discussing with the resident the importance of doing his hygiene daily and following staff instructions without redirection. Licensing did not see the resident. Licensing observed staff 1 enter the resident's room at 7:49:29 a.m. and exit at 7:49:57 a.m., but the camera did not reveal what occurred in the bedroom.

Licensing Specialist received a copy of a witness statement from staff 2 who was present at the time of the alleged incident and a copy of the nursing notes for the resident dated 4/26/2025.

Licensing spoke with staff 2 to discuss the incident:

Staff 2: Reported to Licensing that he was one of the staff members working with staff 1 and the resident. Staff 2 reported to Licensing that the resident is on an uresis protocol. Staff 1 had talked to the resident about doing his hygiene and the resident refused to do so. Staff 2 reported that the resident has a CPAC in his room. Staff 2 reported that the resident pretended like he grabbed something and walked to a corner in his room. Staff 2 reported that Staff 1 walked into the resident's room to make sure that he (the resident) did not have anything or was messing with his CPAC machine. Staff 2 reported that after Staff 1 could see that the resident did not have anything that he should not have in his hands, so staff 1 left the room.

Licensing investigated this case for potential violations of the following standards:

- 109.1g Engaging in behavior that could be viewed as sexual, dangerous, exploitative, or physically harmful to children.

Licensing complaint case #029333 is UNFOUNDED.
