Juvenile Returned to Youth Home

Primary Narrative By Christopher Tatum, 09/15/25 17:54

Runaway Juvenile

On 09/15/2025 at 1705 hours, Deputies took a report for a runaway juvenile. Contact was made with the house staff at the Youth Home Inc., Ethel Carter. Carter advised that [REDACTED] did not return home from school today.

Carter stated that [REDACTED] was last seen wearing a black and white shirt, gray pants, and black and white shoes. [REDACTED] is about 5 feet 6 inches, has red strawberry hair, brown eyes, and is possibly 185lbs. Carter advised [REDACTED] to attend Joe T Robinson Senior High School. Carter stated that [REDACTED] left for school this morning on the bus around 0755 hours and is scheduled to return home around 1630 hours, but she did not. Carter has no idea who she could be with or her whereabouts. Carter was advised of the report number and advised that if [REDACTED] was to return, let Deputies know so she could be taken out of the runaway system. [REDACTED] was entered into ACIC as a runaway juvenile with NIC number M508598491.

Juvenile Located and Returned to Youth Home

On September 16, 2025, I contacted the Colonel Glenn Youth home and checked the status of the missing juvenile, [REDACTED]. They advised that she was brought back last night by LRPD at approximately 1800 hours, but did not contact the Sheriff's Office. I contacted the PCSO Dispatch to confirm if [REDACTED] had been taken out of the system. They advised that she was not reported missing.
