Maltreatment Narrative:

Licensing Narrative: Program Coordinator reviewed provider reported incident for licensing concerns. Licensing Specialist White will follow up with the facility. 04/09/24 LS White sent follow up email: Please advise if there is any video footage of the incident below? Please provide a copy of the documentation used to make this report [REDACTED] 04/10/24 uploaded agency's responses to the requested information. Please see attached. 4/10/2024-Program Manager requested nursing notes mentioned in the report. The agency provided them to the PRLU for review and they were uploaded to the case. The Program Manager also inquired about the status of the staff member who struck the resident. The facility reported that due to the staff member violating company policy, they decided to terminate the staff member on 4/9/2024. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] 04/12/24 LS White reviewed 15 minutes of camera footage regarding the following occurrence of 04/07/24: footage showed resident going into the laundry room, female staff followed behind him into the laundry room then a moment later a male staff going into laundry room and the female staff leaving the laundry room. Then the nurse enters the laundry room. There are no cameras in the laundry room to verify what occurred in the laundry room. Staff was terminated for violating company policy 04/09/24. Licensing isn't prepared to leave a determination of findings at this time. Requested via email this staff's termination records/paperwork. 05/15/24

[REDACTED]. LS White was unable to substantiate the allegation since the incident occurred in the laundry room area where there are no cameras. Nursing notes verify no body marks, injuries, or pain. Agency terminated this employee.
